

Intuitive Reading

Hey Sistar!

This is what your Guides wanted you to hear today. I'm going to relay this as purely as possible, without trying to make it make sense, especially to me. Here's what they say:

Current Situation

Your Guides indicate to me you are coming to the end of a time you may have called "failure" and may have felt like a "death" of sorts. It has been.

You have come a long way, shed a lot, and are now coming to a cusp. A birth is about to happen, but it can only come with your Surrender. Any clinging to past ideas, beliefs, values, goals, etc that do not serve your greater purpose will need to be released now in order to move forward.

Your Guides are showing a clear need to RELEASE. And this need being the only thing keeping you from transitioning from this current phase to the next.

The reading also implies that now is not a good time to plan or start something new necessarily. And if there is something pressing, there is an urging to focus on only ONE thing at a time. But mostly, you are being encouraged to chill out for a second and assess. The work you need to do right now is not in the physical realm. It is in the releasing. Ideally, this would absorb your full attention, but if you are feeling inspired, follow that inspiration.

This reading is shorter than normal and is very cut and dry: you must focus on releasing that which chains you to the past.

Your Medicine

It appears that you are going to be meeting or connecting with an Ally, most likely in human form. It will be someone who can lend their resources to assist you. It is important that you Surrender authority to this person at this time for this specific purpose. It is also important that as you await and Work with this Ally, you focus on your Mission to RELEASE, and do not allow the waiting or the Working to distract you from that, as THAT is the real Work for you now.

How to begin: take some time to do an inventory of any attachments you may have that are holding you back. Try to rely on your own Intuition for this information. It may be good to do with Work with your new deck.

Ask yourself: What would it feel like to let go of all that is keeping me anchored in my current vibration?
